

Orgatronics is located in the TNO building, which is situated on the Eindhoven Technology University Campus near the Eindhoven City Center.

By train

Eindhoven Central Station. Come down the stairs from the platform and turn right, leaving the station building through the Northern (bus station) exit. Turn right when you reach the road (Prof. Dorgelolaan). The University campus is on the other side of the road. Keep following the road until you see the TNO building (to your left).

By car

All major roads leading to Eindhoven (A2, A58, A67 and A270) have an exit for the city centre ('Centrum'). Follow the signs for Centrum until the University is indicated. On the University campus the TNO building can be found by following 'De Rondom' (blue route).
